Photos

I have a fear of looking at my photos, video footages taken by people other than my sisters or myself.

Photos: Wanna see me knee your self-esteem in the face?
Me: Nope, not today.
I'm delusional about how I look and let it remain that way.

What I meant

It hands over the future black mailing materials.
Or I assault it
and plead insanity.

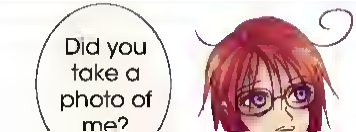
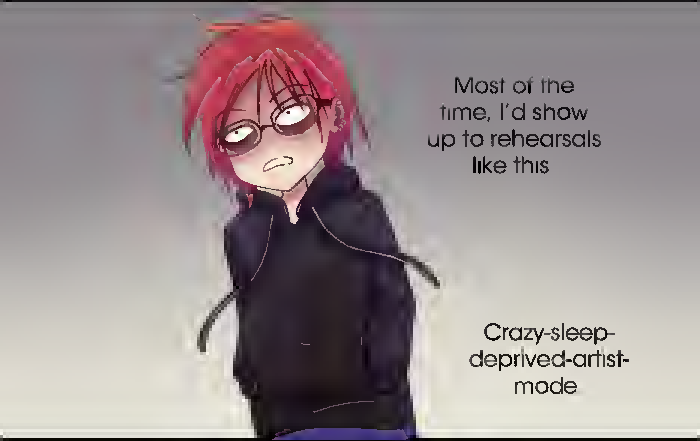
What I say



Sometimes, I'd perform in local events and shows



People sometimes snap behind the scenes photos

If I'mmo look like shiet in the togged photos, might as well look like I did it on purpose
